Handwriting Cursive 6
When rendered slowly and deliberately, as here, Catanco style chancery-cursive writing - cancellaresca
Cursive becomes an elegant formal writing hand
That is eminently suitable for important correspondence.
When it is employed in this manner great care should be exercised in constructing the letterforms - they should be rendered with precision. The resultant writing will possess an inherent loveliness, albeit without the flair and panache of informal italic writing rendered at greater speed.
This exemplar was written out using a Rotring Art pen with a one point one millimeter wide nib reground to approx nine mm, using Rotring black ink cartridges on Rhodia lined pad paper on a flat surface table.
